

- Have you ever wanted to get a bowling lesson but it felt too intimidating working with a “pro”?
- Do you feel like your team is “so close” from contending for the league championship?
- Have you ever been scared to think people are staring at you because you’re seeking help??
- How about being nervous without your friends around you to support you?

If you fit into any of those questions above, the ELITE Bowling Pro Shop and Instructional Center has a program for you.

Team Lesson Program

How it works

Get as many people as you want to go through a custom tailored lesson program to improve your bowling performance. Example: a team of 3, friends, people within the same league or same center – there really is no limit!! Note, the less people you have the more personal the coaching can be. The greater the number of people you have the cheaper the cost will be.

Each person in the group will work with a USBC Certified teaching professional to identify and solve the 1 or 2 biggest issues you feel you face. And don’t worry, if you don’t know what to work on but just feel like something is “off”, we’ll help you identify a key thing to work on.

What kind of things do we work on?

Spares – why 22” can increase your average 15 pins or more

Targeting – understand one of the chief reasons people hold up to 30 pins off their average and don’t even know it.

Timing – de-mystifying the great “timing debate” and allowing you to get more, doing less.

Hook & Curve – Managing THE key element to higher scores

Lane Play – “seeing” the oil pattern and knowing how to exploit it to your advantage

Where can I get a lesson?

We want you to be as comfortable as possible, so we’ll host the lesson wherever you like. Groups bowling inside a Bardon Bowling Centers facility are not responsible for lineage or mileage fees. Those choosing to have a group lesson outside of a BBC center will be subject to applicable fees.

Cost

Lessons are costed out on a time basis and we want to make sure you get what your group wants to accomplish. So our program exactly fits your needs, contact us for a custom quote!!
